THE SECOND REGIMENT HAS GONE SOUTH.

Washington, May 26.—In an interview this morning with a prominent senator the president outlined the campaign as follows:Porto Rico will be taken at once.
For that purpose Admiral Sampson will bombard and reduce San Juan and will provide a landing place for American troops. While the president did not say, it is known that 20,000 troops will be sent as an army of occupation for Porto Rico.The president also said that the invasion of Cuba will be pushed energetically from now on. And it is hoped to have the island in our possession in a few weeks.

WHERE THEY WILL GO.

Washington, May 26.—The following eventual disposition of troops has, it is said, been determined upon:
For Cuba, 100,000 men.
For the Philippines, 25,000.
For Porto Rico, 25,000.
For home defense, 10,000.

GEN. BROOKE WILL LEAD.

Washington, May 26.—General Brooke will command the expedition to Porto Rico.

AFTER A TORPEDO BOAT.

Washington, May 26.—Sampson's scouts are chasing the Spanish torpedo boat Terror. The scouts are the fleet Yale and Minneapolis; the Terror left Martinique yesterday. It is believed that the chase will end this week by the capture of the Terror.

FRIGHTENED CANARIES.

Madrid, May 26.—The Canary Islands are panic stricken over the report that Sampson's fleet is expected there in a few days. The people are fleeing to the interior of the islands, the harbors are being mined and the marine lights are all put out at night.

MORE KENTUCKIANS WANTED.

Washington, May 26.—Kentucky's quota of the 75,000 volunteers called for yesterday will be 2,045. They will be enlisted and examined as rapidly as it is possible to do so.Secretary Alger says that the additional volunteers will not be recruited from the National Guard, but that the enlistment will be open.

SECOND REGIMENT GONE.

Lexington, May 26.—The Second Regiment of Kentucky volunteers, under Col. Galtner, 1,010 strong, left here yesterday for Chickamauga.

SITUATION AT MANILA.

Hongkong, May 26.—The Japanese cruiser Akitsushima has arrived from Manila bearing dispatches from Admiral Dewey and Consul General Williams to United States Consul Wickham.Manila is in a state of anarchy.
Food is so scarce that beef is $3 a pound and potatoes 50 cents a pound.
The people are eating horses.
There are fires daily.A second barricade of sunken schooners has been placed across the river Pasig.General Aguinaldo, the insurgent chief, arrived amid the greatest enthusiasm. Admiral Dewey gave him two field pieces and 500 Mauser rifles.A desperate land engagement is expected this week.Cavite is being made habitable.
The British and German residents are moving there from Manila. They are afraid of the Spanish soldiers who are unfed.Consul General Williams is in charge of all the negotiations with the Spaniards.Admiral Dewey is improving the sanitary condition of Cavite. He has granted to the British and German merchants permission to move from Manila to Cavite, and has ordered houses to be placed at their disposal.The Spanish volunteers have threatened to seize the stores because their demands for arrears for pay has been refused.The captain of the Spanish revenue cutter Caliao, which was recently captured by Dewey's fleet, will be shot for not returning the fire of the American vessels.Admiral Montijo, who commanded the Spanish fleet destroyed by Dewey, is to be court-martialed upon the charge of cowardice.

OUR ARMY.

Washington, May 26.—President McKinley's call for 75,000 volunteers, to serve in the war against Spain brings the total strength of the land forces of the United States, regular and volunteers, up to 280,000 men.Secretary Alger said yesterday that the additional volunteers called for will not be recruited from the National Guards as were the first 125,000, but that the enlistments will be open. The call indicates a determination to press the campaign vigorously from now on.Adjutant-General Corbin has prepared a statement showing the strength of the military forces of the United States when organized in accordance with plans now under way:Regular army, 62,000; volunteers from states (first call), 125,000 men; three cavalry regiments at large, 3, 000 men; ten infantry regiments United States volunteers (immunes), 10,000; engineers at large, 3,500; volunteers called for yesterday, 75, 000. This makes a total of 278,500 men.

CUBA THE MAIN POINT.

Washington, May 26.—It is believed here that the Porto Rico expedition is merely a cover to the main point which is Cuba. Landings will be on Cuba next week in half a dozen places.Admiral Sampson is now off Havana ready to begin the bombardment at a moment's notice.

PORTO RICO FIRST.

Washington, May 26.—Secretary Long still denies that the plans for the Cuban invasion have been completed. He says that the council of war has decided that the occupation of Porto Rico should come first.

CALLED MEETING.

night in called session to take up the school house matter again, and probably to settle it one way or the other. Final arrangements will also be made for the commencement.

MEN OF MODERATE MEANS

Need no longer regard tailor-made clothes with fear and trembling.
Dalton now makes clothes in his own shop, here at home—makes the clothes right, makes the bill right. It costs but a trifle more to wear garments that fit than those that a most fit. The acme of style and workmanship is ours. Drop in at 333 Broadway and see about that belated spring suit. You'll be glad you waited—t'll cost you so little.

DALTON, THE TAILOR

A GRAVE MISTAKE.

Lord Woolsey Says Untrained Men Should Not Go to Cuba.London, May 26.—Lord Woolsey, the commander-in-chief of the British army in conversation with an American said:"The United States would make a mistake in attempting to invade Cuba with volunteers who are not fully drilled and disciplined. If that was done, the United States might expect heavy reverses when those troops encountered the Spanish troops on land.
It would be a grave error to underestimate the strength of the adversaries of the American troops. I would regret to see the Americans even temporarily beaten, as all my sympathies are with them."Continuing, Lord Woolsey said:
"It is fortunate for the United States that this war is not with a first-class power, for it is evident that in such an encounter they would be badly beaten at the beginning, though I believe the Americans able to defeat any nation in the long run."

NO FEAR NOW.

New York, May 26.—The steamship Altamira sailed for Colon yesterday. Shipping men believe that this is good evidence that the Spanish fleet which has recently roamed the Caribbean sea is safely shut up under the American guns at Santiago, and that the Spanish-American line has received advice to this effect from the government.

THE SITUATION.

Admiral Cervera is still bottled up in Santiago harbor by Commodore Schley. It is the purpose of our fleet to open fire on the batteries guarding the entrance to the harbor and silence them. If this does not draw the enemy out it will at least enable the American fleet to move close in shore and perhaps may destroy the mechanism for launching off the three lines of torpedoes which are in the harbor.Admiral Sampson is not before Santiago. He is on the north coast of Cuba, ready to convey troops for the invasion and to bombard Havana when the attack begins. He is also in position to protect cities on the American coast.Everything indicates an early beginning of the invasion of Cuba in force.The Oregon will join the fleet in front of Havana as soon as she is cooled and provisioned.It is believed that the fast cable connection between Cuba and Madrid was cut yesterday.A dispatch published at Madrid gives details of the arrival of Admiral Cervera's fleet at Santiago May 19 and shows that he is still in Santiago harbor.The steamships Australia, City of Peking and City of Sydney sailed from San Francisco yesterday, carrying 2,500 soldiers, the first division of the Philippine army of occupation. The ships are due at Manila about June 20.Rear Admiral Dewey has urged that if riots occur at Manila or if a bombardment should be necessary, all the foreigners should assemble immediately in the business quarter and protection given them by the marines from the foreign cruisers. Admiral Dewey has given notice that he considers Hilo and Cebu blockaded, and has ordered all sailing vessels to leave Manila bay.The Spanish are arming the natives, but the English think they will use the weapons against Spain.The enlistment of 75,000 more volunteers will require three additional major generals and about 24 brigadier generals.The press censor at Key West has just permitted to pass the news of last week in Key West. In two days no less than fifteen battleships, cruisers and monitors, besides many smaller warships, put in there and hurriedly coaled, each sailing as fast as its bunkers were full, without waiting for the others. The battleship Iowa was attached to Commodore Schley's squadron, which was ordered to Santiago. Sampson's destination is unreported. At the same time all the transports for the army of invasion lying at Key West sailed, presumably for Tampa, Mobile and New Orleans.The Henderson company of the Third regiment was mustered into the Federal service at camp Collier yesterday. Four companies are yet to be mustered. Gov. Bradley yesterday presented flags to the Lebanon Bradley Rifles and the Frankfort Bradley Guards.

REMEMBERING THE MAINE.

Washington, D. C., May 26.— Since the war began the Maine disaster, which was its immediate cause, has either dropped out of sight, but there is a little band of women in this city who have done much to relieve the sufferings of the survivors and the families of the men who were killed in Havana harbor.This band consists of Mrs. Long, wife of the secretary of the navy;
Mrs. A. S. Crowninshield, Mrs.
Edwin Stuart, Mrs. Richardson Clever, Mrs. Charles O'Neil, Mrs.
W. K. Van Reysen, Mrs. Charles Heywood, Mrs. S. Clump, and Miss Benham, daughter of Rear Admiral Benham, retired.As a result of their efforts $27,- 767 has been collected and $10,000 disbursed. The wounded survivors were cared for in hospitals and in advance of the action taken by congress allotments were made to meet the expenses of the families of those killed in the wreck.It is proposed to continue these allotments each month as long as the fund lasts.

HAWAII'S POSITION.

Washington, May 26.—The Philippines expedition is now off in dead earnest. The sending of these ships will effect the Hawaiian question vitality. Lacking the Charleston the transports must stop at Hawaii to replenish their coal bunkers from the great heaps of coal that Consul Gen.
Hayward has been piling up for months past. If the Hawaiians let us take this coal without the pretext that we are using it to make our way to our nearest home port, as is required by international law in such cases, they will stand convicted of a gross breach of neutrality that in the eyes of the law of nations allies them with the United States in hostility to Spain.The taking of coal by the American ships at Hawaii to make an extensive campaign against the Spanish possessions if it is believed here will result in compelling the United States either to assume a protectorate over the islands or to annex them.

THE ENGLISH DERBY.

Derby was run at Epsom Downs yesterday and won by J. W. Lam-och's chestnut colt Jeddah.
The Duke of Westminster's "Batt" was second and the Prince of Wales' Dunlop third.Eighteen horses ran. The betting was 100 to 1 against Jeddah, 10 to 1

Dunlop.

the log factory will locate here.This afternoon the mayor had them out riding, showing them the prettiest city in southwest Kentucky.

recently, in the most daring exploit of the century, achieved the greatest naval victory of ancient or modern times, and in the enemy's own country triumphantly hoisted the stars and stripes.On this festive occasion THE BEST OF THE LAND will be served in befitting style and manner,

AVOID BREAKERS

And Give Benjamin Keys a Clear and Smooth Track For Congress.A Prominent Trigg County Republican Leader Gives His Idea of the Proper Thing to Do.

Cairo, Ky., May 23.

Editor Paducah Sun:

If admissible, please allow space in what I deem the lowest paper in Western Kentucky, for an humble republican and one, too, who only has the good of his party at stake in so doing, to say that at this very critical moment in politics, in my humble opinion, above all others this is the time for ours, the greatest, grandest and best political organization that has ever organized and achieved wondrous good in America since the day Columbus bowed, kissed this earth and called it his own, to steer clear of breakers.Now the question arises, how is this to be done? Simply by keeping out of conventions, primaries, etc.
Let the Hon. Ben C. Keys have a clear track, and my word for it, no oval or kite shaped, he will carry the big wind jammer of Marion, who is sure to be the democratic nominee, over the same at a much smaller gain than any nominee has traveled in this, the Gibraltar, since the day Eve induced Adam to partake of that fruit of whatever kind it may have been. Yes, let's lay aside all bickerings.
Keep cool, lay low, saw wood and say nothing until the time comes for action and then with one accord give the nominee of the democratic party what Paddy gave the drum. Now I want to be clearly understood that while this is my position, and I will use my best endeavors to this end, however, should the republican party see fit to make a nomination for this big office I feel my indignancy compared with same, and will at the moment same is done, do as I have always done, i. e., board the head wagon of the g. o. p. and do all in my power to elect whoever he may be.Further, I as an individual republican, would like to demonstrate to the democratic party that we too have a copper-lined stomach by swallowing "Uncle Ben," thereby demonstrating that we have no heavier matter to contain than they did when they swallowed Bryan, Lackey & Co., except that our "dose" contains more brain matter than did theirs, which would be nothing unusual in the stomach of a republican as a much larger quantity of like matter, generally speaking, in his stomach than the ordinary democrat carries in his head.
MAX HANBURY.

LIEUT. A. S. ROWAN, Nineteenth United States Infantry, has been recommended for promotion as Lieutenant-Colonel for arduous, perilous and valuable services in obtaining information relative to the situation of the insurgents in Cuba for the use of the general government.

The re-iterated rumors of an alliance between Spain and France are not in the least disquieting, even if true.
While it is probable such a condition may be wished by each party, upon proper consideration, the danger imperils the project as a paper argument. The alliance may never be signed, sealed, etc., but it is as certain as fate that the sympathies and interests of the two states is a stronger tie than mere paper stipulations. The question of French and to Spain is beyond doubt, and although the President, Ministers of State, etc., refrain from any act save of highest courtesy and friendship towards the United States, the bankers still supply money and the manufacturers will supply munitions, under the very noses of a winking government. The sooner we can provoke France to throw off her mask of neutrality and friendship, the better off we shall be and the sooner the end will be reached.

LINDSAY's speech on the War Revenue bill was a sound, sensible, well put, business exposition of monetary affairs at this time. He insists that the credit of the government shall not be broken at the commencement of a war which no one knows the duration of, by the issue of greenbacks, silver coinage or other political experiments. His the times may become so necessitous in the future that we shall have to adopt any and every financial scheme to keep ships aloft and armies in the field, and it is time enough to resort to extreme measures, when necessity demands them. There is no requirement for novel ideas, as we can manage our affairs on a solid basis.

The credit of the government must be kept to its highest point as long as it is in the power of the people to hold it there, and "sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." When we cannot do as we would, we shall then do the best we can.

THE GREATER QUESTION.
Few people care to look over the dry pages of history—but these old pages often show a reason or solution for present difficulties and situations.

The feudal system with its degrading influences held full sway over Europe for over a thousand years, and the dawn of liberty was shadowed by old customs and the clouds of many centuries. It first appeared in England in 1215, when King John was forced to give a measure of freedom to the lords and nobles, and through them to the people. The charter granted by him was confirmed and extended by all the subsequent monarchs, until the House of Commons chosen by the people became a power even greater than the throne. The broad-winged spirit of liberty did not find as grand domain in England as it demanded, and many people sailing over the sea built their homes at Plymouth, Jamestown, and Baltimore. Even there they were sought to be limited in their boundless love for civil liberty and justice, until resentment and war with the mother country made them independent after seven years of poverty and struggle. This little government which had laid down the principle, that all just government was founded on the consent of the governed, did not attract the attention of Europe, and was believed to be a small affair with a heterogeneous population of liberal political dreamers. As long as England did not object to the growth of the new republic it was considered too insignificant for the serious attention of other nations.

One hundred years of national growth developed full manhood in the new nation, and showed it strong and compact enough to protect its integrity against internal causes or dissensions. It had proclaimed the gospel of civil liberty to mankind and offered its broad acres as a refuge and home to all who wished free citizenship. It had proclaimed the Monroe doctrine and enforced it in favor of our neighbor Mexico, by compelling France and Austria to abandon their scheme of conquest, and had reiterated and stamped the everlasting seal of freedom of the western hemisphere upon the statutes of nations. As this spirit of civil liberty took on the strength and form of a giant to compel obedience to its mandates, it awoke the jealousies, envy and burning anger in those to the manner born in king craft, and they have waited for a moment to strike and destroy.

Feudalism ruled France 500 years after the first blow for liberty had been struck in England. Germany has not been free since before the Roman conquest, but has passed through all the varying forms from despotism to an occasional glimpse of liberty. Today her constitution of the empire is but a scintilla, without power in the people. Switzerland began her struggle for independence over one hundred years after England had shown the way, and struggled against vast odds through the wars of 200 years before her freedom was ac-knowledgeed, while Russia is emerging from the Cimmerian darkness of her black past, pumpled with un-terable despotism, which she seeks to spread over other lands and people by force of armies and navies.

These people, the lords of blood and death, dressed in crimson and black—the men who claim the divine right to rule and lord it without responsibility over the people of the world—have an antagonism to free citizenship and the United States, which is as unrelenting as a pestilence. The long pent up hatred which they bear us requires but a spark to loosen the awful forces of destruction at their command. The existence of the United States as a nation is a constant menace to the permanency of their thrones, and at the first auspicious moment when they believe they may succeed, they will attempt to stamp us from existence, and make our people feel the weight of the heel of an Czar or Emperor on their necks. Again, at the crowned heads of the continent the word has been passed around, "Carthago delenda est."

The expansion and growth of the United States brings constantly to their minds increasing dangers, until in terror they almost see the handwriting as it appeared to Balshazzar.
They have listened to the seductive pleadings of Spain with deepest sympathy, but dared not act or strike.
They are now hearing Spain preach the crusade of the Latin against the Anglo-Saxon, but that does not move them yet—does not unite them. But the song of the Iberian in a lower tone and deeper key of the eternal war of feudal grandeur against free government—Kingscraft against democracy—woos them and will shortly win them to action.

This is the situation, and freedom must make good her cry to downtrodden humanity, or enter again into the night of barbarism and absolutism.

With free England—with Japan reborn and reaching up and out to the light, and the United States in a combination, civilization and freedom will yet awaken and lighten the darkest corners of the earth—while bastilles, castles and all the habitations and humiliations of autocratic power will perish from the earth, and the last of the kings shall be laid beside the dust of his ancestors and kind. Just what trifling complimen-tation shall discharge the pent-up wrath and hatred of the feudal lords who assume divine right, may not now be foretold, but that we shall have to bear and uphold with faithful allies, the banner and truths of freedom and civilization, cannot be questioned. To conquer Spain in this war will be comparatively a small matter to the duty of re-forming the world and giving freedom to its people. We shall have to meet the issue, which has been one hundred years in forming, as a part of our contest with Spain. We cannot avoid it, if we would—and we have to meet it and conquer or sink into significance. Who shall be the master—the king or the people? What shall be the rule—feudalism or free government?

Deafness Cannot Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; this disease often is caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give you One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. P. J. CLEMENTS & CO.,

MUNYON'S SUCCESS.

Proof in Abundance that His Remedy Cures.

Mrs. George Thompson, 14 N. Sixth street, Council Bluffs, Ia., says: "I had phre-nitis for two years, suffering from insomnia, the terrible Munyon's Headache Cure cured me."
Mrs. C. H. Ford, 613 N. Main street, Rockford, Ill., says: "Was a chronic sufferer from neuritis for 20 years. Could not hear anything. Munyon's Headache Cure cured me."
Mrs. Charles Ebel, 1150 Sixth street, Milwaukee, Wis., says: "Have used Munyon's Remedy for female trouble, colds, rheumatism and catarrh. They always cure. I keep a case in the house."
Mrs. W. H. Mays, widow of M. E. Church, Nikawau, Mo., says: "Munyon's Headache Cure cured me of chronic headache. I now Munyon's Remedy with great success."
Mr. J. R. Ward, Caldwell, Mich., says:
"I had been growing deaf for 20 years. Could not

SOCIETY NOTES.

Miss Octavia Peoples is very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Bradshaw on West Jefferson.

Miss Rosa W. Fall, of New Orleans, arrived in the city this afternoon on a visit to friends. Miss Fall has many friends here having returned here before going to New Orleans.

The meeting of the Magazine club with Mrs. Ed L. Atkins Tuesday afternoon, was one of the most pleasant of the season. Delicate refreshments were served, and the leading magazines of the day were discussed.

Mrs. Charles Morris is entertaining this afternoon.

There is some talk of a fishing party being gotten up before many days, to fish in the lakes of Southern Illinois. Many happy days have been spent over there by our young people, and if this party materializes we are assured that it will prove a success.

Mrs. Charles F. Jarrett, of Hopkinsville, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Marie S. Cobb, on Broadway.
Mrs. Jarrett is a former resident of Paducah and has many friends here who will hasten to give her a most hearty welcome.

Those who failed to attend the lecture by Bishop Thomas U. Dudley at the Episcopal church Tuesday evening missed a very great treat.
Bishop Dudley is one of Kentucky's brightest men, descending from two such families as the Underwoods and Dudleys, intellect is his natural inheritance; but when we add to this a life of travel and study, the lecture of last Tuesday is just what might have been expected. The church was crowded, and as always the case when Bishop Dudley comes among us.

Miss Mickle Hansbro left this morning for an extended visit to her old home in Tennessee. Miss Hans-bro will remain away from the city for several weeks, if not longer.

Next Sunday the Catholic Knights and Ladies will give an excursion to Cairo. The fare is reasonable and a pleasant day is promised to one and all. Go. You will have a good time and help a good cause.

Miss Edna Speer, one of Chicago's most attractive young ladies, will be with us next week on a visit to her cousin, Miss Mary K. Sowell. We can without much risk prophecy a pleasant visit for Miss Speer, as she visits a home well known for its delightful hospitalities.

The girls must put away their rustling taffeta underskirts, for the Sunday St. Louis Republic says: "The woman of elegance no longer cares to rustle aggressively and so she longs for beautiful lace net or lace over a gros grain or organdie silk. These with the silken net, will create the subdued rustle that is so suggestive of rich linings and dainty petticoats.
The black nets and laces are quite as fashionable as they were eight or ten years ago. Even for young women, they are much liked, particularly when hung over colored silks. As first choice comes the net with che-rill dot, and after that the one with satin stripe. The satin-striped net is really quite durable."

Master Cecil Lacy celebrated his thirteenth birthday, Tuesday evening, at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Baker, corner of Ninth and Main streets. His freshments were served and a most enjoyable time was had by all. The following is a list of those present:

Misses Bessie Clark, Elizabeth Burnett, Marie Burnett, Myrtle Decker, Helen Decker, Mattie Davis, Lillian Rudy, Susie Jorgenson, Ethel Morrow, Ruth Weil, Minnie Terrell,

GOOD VAUDEVILLE.

Will Hereafter be on at LaBelle Park.—Change on Monday.

Manager Hostwick has decided to make a change in the troupe at La Belle park, and the Robt. Sherman company will be released Saturday night, and vaudeville will be substituted. Only high class features will be introduced, and the first week some of the features will be Chas.
Diamond, the renowned harpist, Albert Reynard, the celebrated ventriloquist, who has the most complete outfit of any man in the business, Esther sisters in acrobatic features, and the society sketch term, the Midgeleys. There will also be other attractions, and the public is assured a show that cannot fail to please.

Yesterday's Commercial—Appeal says: The vaudeville entertainment given at East End Park last night, under the management of C. T.
Taylor, was appreciated by the audience present, judging from the applause given the artists as they appeared on the stage. The song and dance, with the golden harp accompaniment of Charles Diamond, was very enjoyable, and the Esther sisters, in acrobatic song and dance, made a great hit. The Midgeley's society sketch artists: Annie Connors, "Coco Shouter," and Reynard, ventriloquist, are all artists in their several lines.

This entire troupe of artists will be here, with several more added, and every few days there will be changes, new artists coming from Memphis and Little Rock. This change in plans is in accordance with Mr. Taylor's first intentions. The change is made with the assurance of knowing that it will be to the advantage of the public.

GOOD SHOWING.

Mr. S. C. Vaughan, who has been traveling about the state for several months in the interest of the A. O.
U. W., is back to spend the summer, and reports much progress in the order during the past year. There are now several thousand members in Kentucky, and last year the Kentucky lodge won the $2,000 offered for the one thousand members secured during the year.

In Paducah the increase has been in proportion, and there are now two thriving lodges of A. O. U. W. here.

DAY OF PRAYER.

Mrs. Wightman, president of our board of missions, calls the societies to observe tomorrow, Friday, the 27th, as a day of prayer fasting.
The women's board will meet June 2, and it is earnestly desired that a special prayer shall be made that the deliberations of that body may be controlled by the Holy Spirit. The Foreign Missionary society of the Broadway M. E. church will observe the day. At the hour of 4 we will enter our closets. May blessings follow each prayer.

ICE CREAM SUPPER.

There will be an ice cream supper given by the Ladies Aid society at the corner of Third and Norton, next Saturday night, May 28, for the benefit of the Third street Methodist church.

ALL DAY SERVICES.

There will be all-day church services at the Reelton school house, on the Hon-ton road five miles from the city, next Sunday. Everybody invited to those services, and to bring their diners, as dinner will be served on the grounds.

ON A VACATION.

Capt. J. S. Beatty, of the Illinois Central transfer steamer Osborne, left today for Cairo, to be absent a day or two. Capt. Sam Johnson, of the city, is in his place.

SEWERAGE WORKS.

The Main Sewer has been completed to Third and Court.

The sewer lateral on Court has been started, and the trenches are being dug out towards Fourth. The Broadway sewer is past Fourth, and last night the entire street was open traffic for the first time in several days, and cars ran all the way to the river.

Is our business, our pastime, our de-

KISSED THE WRONG WOMAN.

This led to the construction of a Ladies' Gallery.

Previous to the construction of the ladies' gallery in the house of commons, says Mrs. Fenwick Miller, the only spot from which any lady could hear the debates was from the ventilator opening in the roof.

Elizabeth Fry was the first woman to be allowed to go up there. The Quaker members of the parliament procured for her to be there during the debates on prison reform, in their votes on which they were always guided by her experienced advice. Other ladies followed occasionally, but it was a most uncomfortable place—dark and with only room for about two chairs.

Well, one day Feargus O'Connell, son of the "Liberator," was going to make a speech, which he intended should be a very fine one, and so (like a good husband, caring more for the verdict of the critic on the hearth than for any other) arranged for his wife to be in the ventilator-hole to listen.

As soon as he had done speaking he rushed upstairs, and, entering that dark place, saw, as he supposed, his wife turn to greet him.

He threw his arms around her and kissed her warmly as he said: "Well, my darling, what did you think of it?"

But it so chanced that his wicked wife had not come, and that the wild Irishman had embraced a duchess, the wife of an influential minister, who declared to her husband that such mistakes must be prevented in the future by making a proper ladies' gallery.

A SUCCESSFUL BLUFF.

How an Insurance Company Saved a Good Round Sum.

Three workmen were employed to put a water tank on the roof of a factory building which stands in one of the prairie suburbs. The owners of the building had the tank put there so as to lower the rate of insurance on the building, which is a wooden structure of somewhat flimsy construction.

The men on the roof put the tank in position and fastened and made the proper water-pipe connections. Then some one turned on the water and the tank filled up. By the time the tank had filled it was so heavy that it went through the roof and down through three floors, doing great damage to the building, flooding the premises and injuring four employees, including one of the carpenters who had been at work on the roof. It was little less than a miracle that no one was killed.

The owners were protected by insurance in a company which understood to adjust the claims for damages. Settlements were made with all the employees except the one who had been temporarily at work on the roof. This man's name was O'Brien. The agent of the insurance company was unable to find him.

Nearly a month after the accident a large and robust man with an arm in a sling came into the agent's office and seated himself, at the same time sighing heavily.

"They nearly killed me with the casing in that building," he said. "They'll not settle with me for any doctor's bill—I'll tell you that."

"What's your name?"

"O'Brien."

There was something in O'Brien's manner which aroused a sudden suspicion in the mind of the agent. Acting entirely on the impulse of the moment, he made a magnificent bluff.

"Oh, so you're O'Brien, are you?" he asked. "Well, O'Brien, you're just the man I've been looking for these three weeks. I'm going to have you arrested for criminal negligence. You're the man who turned the water into that tank before all the braces had been put in. You are the man who was really responsible for all the trouble. Don't go away. I want to talk to you about the case."

Then he walked into the adjoining room and said, so loudly that it could be heard in his own office: "Billy you heard in his own office: 'Billy you're the man who turned the water into that tank before all the braces had been put in. You are the man who was really responsible for all the trouble. Don't go away. I want to talk to you about the case.'"

Then he returned to his own office and said, so loudly that it could be heard in his own office: "Billy you heard in his own office: 'Billy you're the man who turned the water into that tank before all the braces had been put in. You are the man who was really responsible for all the trouble. Don't go away. I want to talk to you about the case.'"

New Kind of Business.

A BIG SUM.

Indians have little notion of the larger value.

It is not so easy now to cheat the Indians as in the days when they bartered their lands for glass beads and worthless trinkets. They are now pretty sharp in making ordinary trades which come up in their daily life; nevertheless, it is true that when it comes to a question of large sums of money—thousands or even hundreds of dollars—the average Indian is bewildered at the mere idea of so much wealth. An incident which happened not long ago in New Mexico illustrates this point. An Indian was killed by a railroad train, and his widow demanded $3,000 as an indemnity. The company was willing to settle, and sent an agent who knew Indians thoroughly. He took with him several bags of Mexican silver dollars, which pass freely among Indians in that part of the country. Sitting down gravely with the aggrieved widow, he began counting out the big, shining dollars one by one. When the pile had reached 100, glanced inquiringly at the widow, and she shook her head firmly. The agent went on with his counting, and at the end of another 100 he looked up again. She repeated the negative shake of her head, but her eyes began to brighten at the heap of silver. At 300 the agent paused a little longer. The widow still held out, though with unmistakable signs of weakening. The agent counted more slowly and impressively, and when he reached 318, the widow stopped his hand. "I have plenty," she said, with decision; and, gathering up the silver, she accepted in perfect contentment this settlement of her claim for $3,000—Golden Days.

Heating Surface of Kettles.

So completely has the idea of the advantage to be gained by a greater heating surface taken possession of the minds of a few inventors, that they are determined to run the corrugated idea into everything. One invention is a kettle with a corrugated bottom which will, it is claimed, heat water much more quickly because it has more surface. In view of the fact that at least half of the time the kettles may stand upon the top of the stove, this idea does not seem feasible. In this case there would be arches all through under the bottom, and the kettle would scarcely heat at all.

The Chance for Some Man.

Every once in awhile some public man endows some college with a fund, the interest to be devoted to prizes for the student who is the best orator, or who writes the best essay.
